

2021 – May

Robert (Bob) Tolley became an ex-officio trustee of Okehampton United Charities when he was elected as Town Mayor on the 5th May.

Bob is one of three ex-officio trustees who sit on the Board of Trustees; the other two are Julie Yelland as immediate past Mayor and Stephen Cook as Team Rector. The remainder of the trustees are made up of 4 nominated trustees; 2 from Okehampton Town Council and 2 from Okehampton Hamlets Parish Council and 6 co-opted trustees. More information on the trustees and charities is available on the website.

During May Sticklepath and Okehampton Conservation Group spent two days repairing sections of the drystone wall in Ball Hill. Ball Hill woods are a popular local walking route, and we would like to thank StOC for the exceptional work they have undertaken. If you would like to know more about the group, they can be found on Facebook.

Trustees awarded two grants in May contributing to Okey Music Day and Everything Okehampton.
